CORAM : DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

July 24, 2006.

P.C.

After the petition has been heard, Mr.Bhat, Counsel appearing on behalf of the Petitioner states that in view of the finding that has been arrived at by the Labour Court that (i) The Petitioner had applied for and had been granted voluntary retirement and had received terminal dues from the employer; (ii) There is no adjudication by the competent forum to the effect that the applications for voluntary retirement were submitted under duress or that the applicants were forced to do so; the Petitioners are advised not to press their applications under Section 33C-2 since they wish to avail of such remedies as are open in law for seeking adjudication of their rights. Counsel states that this petition may be disposed of as not pressed with liberty reserved to the Petitioners to take recourse to such proceedings which are available in law for adjudication thereof. The petition is accordingly dismissed as not pressed, taking on record the statement of Counsel.
